Saints of the Week

June 27 is the feast of the Icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. It is also the feast of 25 Greek-Catholic Martyrs killed in the Soviet Union, and beatified in 2001 by St John Paul II. Several were Redemptorists, the Order entrusted with the original icon, and so the Latin Church put their feast on this day, as Blessed Nicholas Charnetsky, who had a great devotion to this Icon, and Companions.

June 28 is the feast of the Translation of the Relics of Blessed Theodore Romzha. This is the day of his return to Uzhgorod, at the end of processions in Hungary and Slovakia. It is a day of huge celebrations there, with city-wide procession and church services. We have first and second class relics for your veneration.

June 29 Our two saints are responsible for the preaching to the Gentiles (Paul) and approving that mission (Peter). Both went to Rome: Paul to preach to the emperor and imperial family, Peter to establish the foundation of the Church to the capital of what was then the heart of the known world. Peter and other apostles were opposed to the Gentile converts being baptized and hands laid on for the Holy Spirit unless they followed the Mosaic laws. Paul went to Jerusalem to plead his case. Peter was converted by a vision given to him by God which is followed by the baptism of the Roman centurion Cornelius and all his household (Acts, chapters 9 – 11), and announcing the change of his position at the first Apostolic Council (Acts 11). Peter's support was needed for the mission to continue, as he was already recognized as the leader. Thus many icons show the two embracing in reconciliation.

They were both martyred for the faith in 67 AD; tradition says it was on this day. Paul was beheaded because he was a Roman citizen; Peter was crucified, but upside down in response to his protest that he could not die in the same form as Christ had. We know that this feast was celebrated on this day from catacomb carvings dating to 258 AD. Peter was buried in the cemetery on Vatican hill, and Paul to what is now Saint Paul Outside the Walls basilica. Science has proven the two burial spots to be correct.

We are privileged to have two small relics of SS Peter and Paul, which Father Chris gives to the church every year for public veneration at the Liturgies of this Feast.

June 30, is the commemoration of Blessed Basil Velychkovsky, the bishop who restored the Greek Catholic hierarchy of the Ukrainian Church in the USSR. He was arrested and tortured numerous times. At the end, the KGB exposed him to radiation poisoning, and then let him emigrate. He is buried in Canada, at St. Joseph's Church in Winnipeg, where he died in 1973.

Since this shrine opened, there have been reports of many physical cures – even cancer. You can read about him and the shrine at <http://www.bvmartyrshrine.com/>. One of the things he was arrested for was a city-wide procession of the icon Our Lady of Perpetual Help in 1940, shortly after the Communists had taken over; he also wrote a book about the icon. These two items were cited as "proof" of his alleged crimes, basically for defying communist rule.
